DEATH OF MRS. DELAGNEL.-A telegram was received at this office today from San Francisco, Cal., stating that Mrs. deLignel, wife of Col. J. A. deLignel, died on Thursday and that her remains will be placed in a vault there tomorrow. No other particulars were given. Col. and Mrs. deLagnel left here about five months ago to spend the summer in San Francisco and from recent letters received here by their friends they were well and heartily enjoying their stay at San Francisco, Mrs. deLagnel's old home. The numerous friends here of the deceased will deeply regret to learn of ner death and extend across the continent their sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband.

GOING TO ATLANTA -Mr. Frederick Kaus, formerly of the Geo, R. Hill Bak-ery, has accepted a postion as foreman of the Frank E. Block Company of Atlanta, Ga., one of the largest bakeries of the South, and will leave for his new field of duty on Sunday. Mr. Kans came to Alexandria from Philadelphia 21 years ago and has been in constant employ of the Hill Co., until they shut down on June 30. He has represented the 2nd war i in the city council and is now a member of the school board from that ward. His departure from this city will be regretted by his many friends.

THE MARKET was well supplied with everything in season today and prices for most of the fruits and vegetables were lower. Watermelons, cantatoupes, peaches, apples and pears were in profusion and were cheap, while the supply of corn, tomatoes, beans, cabbage, potstoes, etc., exceeded the demand. Many of the country people had cider for sale on their benches. The prices of meat, fresh and salt, con-
